Facts Stronger than Words. To the Editor of the New Era.

DEAR Sin, -In looking over the Era of the 25th pit., I observed a communication over the Aigualure of " Subscriber," giving his opinion. among other things, on the fall of Messia Ironsides and Randall, in public opinion. 1 is not my intention to go through his longthy letter, believing that the statement of a for facts will serve to show the deception of the wholin articles

In the first place, a "Bubzeriber" states 21st. "Mr. Ironsides stood at the head of the poll" One of the most successful reform demont in January, 1860. So he did; but, Mr. Editor, last. Does your correspondent call this fulling the contrary notwithstanding. A. " bubscriber'a" next statement is- "That Mr. Rambill was elected by acclamation." Such is the fact; and why? Simply because it was ogreed amongst the candidates to let the election be decided by a "show of bands." Now, Sir, the show of hands in favor of Ran dall, al that timo, only numbered 40,-while this year he polled 227, being an increase of 187's and this is terraud by your jealous correspondent, " falling in public opinion,". loar, Mr. Editor, the wish of a "Subscriber" is father to the thought, - he, no doubt, fancy in f Messis.
